

COMPLAINT HANDLING GUIDE

Although we aim to provide you with the highest standards of service, there may be occasions when our service does not meet your expectations. This guide is intended to communicate the process we will follow should you feel the need to complain. Our procedures have been designed to meet the requirements of the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA) and the Financial Ombudsman Service (FOS).

We regard a complaint as being:

'any oral or written expression of dissatisfaction, whether justified or not, from, or on behalf of, a person about the provision of, or failure to provide, a financial service or redress determination, which alleges that the complainant has suffered (or may suffer) financial loss, material distress or material inconvenience'

We will provide a copy of this document on request and when acknowledging a complaint.

Making a complaint

If you wish to make a complaint, we can be contacted as follows:

Complaints Department
Jelf
Hillside Court, Bowling Hill
Chipping Sodbury
Bristol, BS37 6JX

Telephone: 01454 272727
Email: complaints@jelf.com

Please note that we are not responsible for, and will not pay, any third party costs you incur in pursuance of your complaint.

Acknowledging your complaint

If your complaint cannot be resolved by the close of the third business day following receipt, we will promptly send you a written acknowledgement of your complaint. For complaints resolved within three business days a response confirming the resolution will be issued.

If you make an oral complaint, our written acknowledgement will set out our understanding of your complaint.

If we have reasonable grounds to be satisfied that another firm may be solely or jointly responsible for the allegation(s) made, we will promptly forward the complaint, or the relevant part of it, to that firm. We will write to you to confirm our actions and provide contact details of the firm concerned.

Investigating your complaint

Your complaint will be investigated by somebody who is competent and as far as is possible by an individual who is unconnected to the subject of your complaint. Your complaint will be investigated diligently and will be assessed fairly, consistently and promptly.

We may ask you to submit copies of documentation and may request further information from you to assist us with our investigation. We will take into account any documents and/or information you may provide in relation to your complaint.

Keeping you informed

If your complaint cannot be resolved by the close of the third business day following receipt, we will ensure that you are kept informed of our progress with regards to the investigation into your complaint.

We will undertake a thorough investigation of your complaint which may take a little bit of time. However, in the event that we have been unable to conclude our enquiries within an eight week period, we will write to you and let you know when we expect to be in a position to issue our Final Response letter.

If you are eligible, we will also provide you with details of your right to refer the matter to the Financial Ombudsman Service.

Resolving your complaint

When we have finalised our investigation into your complaint, we will issue our Final Response letter.

Our final response will be:

- fair, clear and not misleading;
- provide details of our investigation and decision; and
- if relevant, include any offer of remedial action or the appropriate level of redress (or both).

If you are unhappy with our resolution to your complaint, you may be eligible to refer your complaint to Lloyd's of London and/or the Financial Ombudsman Service.

Lloyd's of London Policyholders

If you are a Lloyd's of London policyholder, you may if you wish, refer your complaint to Lloyd's – please check your policy for the procedure. Lloyd's will investigate the matter and provide a final response. Lloyd's contact details are as follows:

Lloyd's of London
Complaints
One Lime Street
London, EC3M 7HA

Telephone: 020 7327 5693
Email: complaints@lloyds.com
Website: www.lloyds.com/complaints

Ultimately, should you also remain dissatisfied with Lloyd's final response, you may, if eligible, refer your complaint to the Financial Ombudsman Service.

Financial Ombudsman Service

You may be eligible to refer a complaint to the Service if you are:

- a consumer (a person acting for purposes which are outside their trade, business, craft or profession)
- a micro-enterprise (a business which employs less than 10 people and has a turnover or annual balance sheet of less than €2m)
- a charity which has an annual income of less than £6.5 million (or its equivalent in any other currency)
- a trustee of a trust which has a net asset value of less than £5 million (or its equivalent in any other currency)
- a buy-to-let consumer (in relation to consumer buy-to-let business)
- a small business (a business which has an annual turnover of less than £6.5 million (or its equivalent in any other currency); and (i) employs fewer than 50 people; or (ii) has a balance sheet total of less than £5 million (or its equivalent in any other currency))
- a guarantor.

Please note that if you wish to refer your complaint this must be done within 6 months of our Final Response letter, or you may lose that right. Details of this right and an explanatory leaflet will be provided.
